Candidate Class Challenge

One Army takes great pride in our Candidate Class system, and feels that both old and new members mutually benefit from the process. Throughout their first semester in the organization, new members are required to plan a service event, host a leadership speaker, coordinate a social event and complete a fundraising project. The planning for these events take place in weekly Candidate Class meetings. This allows new members to assume responsibility and take action in the organization, all while enhancing brotherhood between them.
