One Army focuses its efforts on developing men through leadership, brotherhood and service. These foundational pillars provide our members the opportunity to build exceptional friendships, all while serving our campus, our community, and each other. ## Membership Requirements

- Attend general member meetings every Tuesday night at 8:05 p.m.
- Pay dues of $150 per semester
- Attend the minimum required One Army events and functions
- As a new member, complete the Candidate Class Challenge (details below)

Candidate Class Challenge

One Army takes great pride in our Candidate Class system, as we feel that both old and new members mutually benefit from the process. Throughout their first semester in the organization, new members are required to refurbish or build a new gladiator dash obstacle, host a leadership speaker, coordinate a social event and complete a fundraising project. The planning for these events take place in weekly Candidate Class meetings. This allows new members to assume responsibility as well as take action in the organization, all while enhancing brotherhood between them.

Essay Instructions

Please answer the following three essay questions on a separate document. Responses are to be typed using 12-point font, double-spaced, and all questions combined should not exceed 2 single-sided pages. Do not include your name anywhere in your responses, but please place your UIN in the top right corner of each page. When finished, please save the document with the title as your UIN number. Then upload to our Get Involved submission portal.

1. One Army's mission statement states we are "serving the campus and community." We encourage our members to do this through multiple avenues, not strictly OA. How would you fulfill this part of the mission statement outside of One Army activities?
2. What is one opportunity that you were able to seize in college that led to personal growth, and how has that opportunity affected you?
3. Let's say that you are given the role of director for a film. You have full creative freedom and an unlimited budget. What is the plot? Why did you choose this plot? Who are you casting? What do you do with the profit from the movie?

Please direct any questions you may have to Hutton Hoegemeyer
